“No. 1 Ladies Detective Agency” Safari

10 DAYS — BOTSWANA

Even if you haven't yet read the “No. 1 Ladies Detective Agency”, you'll love this special safari which celebrates the best of Botswana. The adventure includes a 6-night deluxe wing safari to Botswana's unspoiled wilderness areas, visiting the Okavango Delta, Moremi Reserve and Chobe National Park. The itinerary leads, irresistibly, toward ‘civilization’ and into the colorful town of Gaborone, where you follow in the footsteps of Detective Precious Ramotswe. Literary and culture lovers alike will delight in visits to the tribal administration and small shops in Madame Ramotswe's birth village — with names like the “Try Again Butchery”, the “Last Chance Beauty Salon” and the “Honesty First Clothes Shop”. Bring your book club, your loved ones, or come with some friends for a glimpse into the small town lives of modern day Botswana captured in the ‘No. 1 Ladies’ series.

The No. 1 Ladies' Detective Agency
(EXCERPT FROM CHAPTER 1)
“Mma Ramotswe had a detective agency in Africa, at the foot of Kgale Hill. These were its assets: a tiny white van, two desks, two chairs, a telephone, and an old typewriter. Then there was a teapot, in which Mma Ramotswe — the only lady private detective in Botswana — brewed redbush tea. And three mugs — one for herself, one for her secretary, and one for the client. What else does a detective agency really need? Detective agencies rely on human intuition and intelligence, both of which Mma Ramotswe had in abundance. No inventory would ever include those, of course.”
