Tribal Lands

12 DAYS — SOUTH AFRICA

Since the dismantling of Apartheid over a decade ago, South Africa has undergone a transformation that has captured people's hearts and minds. This epic journey reflects the country's own trek towards enlightenment, while delving back into the origins of Africa's first peoples. Apartheid's legacy is documented along Cape Town's 'Walk to Freedom' followed by a cruise to the infamous prison which held Nelson Mandela. Sample modern township life before ascending the Drakensberg mountains to discover, among the high cliffs and dramatic waterfalls, mysterious 2,000 year old cave paintings of the now-extinct Bushmen. At a Zulu village we will meet tribesmen before continuing to the Kingdom of Swaziland, where local craftsman share their secrets. The grand finale is a safari at a private game reserve in the bush of Kruger National Park.

AFRICA!

"South Africa's rich tapestry of rock art predates the most visited temples and ruins around the world, and is by far the oldest record of human art forms. Many countries have beaches and wildlife destinations, but we have the cradle of mankind."
— Minister Valli Moosa, South Africa's Minister of Tourism and Environmental Affairs
